Want to be paid to travel around the beautiful Eyre Peninsula?

The Eyre Regional Health Service incorporates 10 Health Units including Port Lincoln, Cummins, Tumby Bay, Wudinna, Streaky Bay, Elliston, Ceduna, Kimba, Cleve and Cowell. This area covers 72000sq kms, of beautiful coastline and countryside. The communities are aquaculture and agriculture based, with a population of 33000 people. Leisure and lifestyle rewards are just some of the many attributes of the Eyre Region.

Nursing shortages are an issue within many of the Regional Health Units. The Eyre Regional Health Service has designed a service that provides nursing relief for these health units and helps provides employment opportunities within the Eyre Peninsula.

The Eyre Regional Health Service is looking for Registered Nurses, with a minimum of twelve months experience to work for the Regional Nursing Pool. Health Units throughout the Region have excellent facilities and support networks, offering a fantastic work environment. Work will be undertaken across the Eyre Region, with personalised availability sought on employment.

Essential Requirements:

- Registered as a General Nurse or Midwife with the Nurses Board of South Australia, who holds a current practising certificate.
- Minimum of twelve months post-graduate experience.
- Must hold a current South Australian Drivers License.

Special Incentives:

These incentives include:

- Meals provided/reimbursed
- Accommodation provided.
- Child Care
- Fuel Reimbursed
- Health Units endeavour to offer block booking for staff, and late/early combinations where possible.
